He disclosed on Sylvester W. Mayo, who pleaded guilty to furnishing and must pay $10 and costs to-day or go to the house of correction. John Champlin of East Middlebury was up last Friday for intoxication, owned up and paid $5 and costs. Special Prosecutor Tupper appeared for the State in these cases.

Intelligence was received here yesterday of the death of Rev. James T. Hyde, D. D., who came to Middlebury in the spring of 1857 and remained here eleven years as pastor of the Congregational church. He had been failing gradually since the first of the year, and latterly signs of softening of the brain had appeared, together with partial paralysis, which sometimes accompanied that disease. The Chicago Tribune of Monday gives the particulars of his death, as follows: "Prof. Hyde died at his residence No. 628 Washington boulevard, Saturday night at 12 o'clock. In his death the Chicago theological seminary has lost an able and faithful instructor, its students have lost a cordial and helpful friend. He met his class the last time Feb. 16, though his friends had seen for a week or more that he was not able to do his work. He went to Clifton Springs, N. Y., Feb. 18 to receive medical treatment at that resort for invalids. His health declined rapidly, however, when he returned. He passed quietly away after an illness of about two months. Prof. Hyde has been twice settled as pastor, first at New Braintree, Mass., then at Middlebury, Vt. At the latter place he remained eleven years. He has been a professor in the seminary sixteen years. He had just entered his 60th year."

DUSHEN AGAIN.

Solomon Dushen, who was arrested at East Middlebury on Thursday of last week by Deputy Sheriff Rider, charged with perjury alleged to have been committed by him in his testimony before Justice Knapp on his examination for horse-stealing, as noted last week, appeared before Justice Chapman for a hearing on Friday. The evidence of the prosecution tended to show that his statements made on the former examination, to the effect that he drove the Bushey team up past Geo. Taylor's, on the North Branch in Ripton, and that he did not sell the team to Frank Nason of Bridport, were both false. No evidence was adduced by the respondent. In default of bail in the sum of $300 the respondent was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury. A. P. Tupper, special prosecutor, and Mr. Bliss appeared for the State, and C. M. Wilds and James M. Slade, Esqs., for the respondent.

BOUND UP FOR TRIAL.

James Lewis and his two sons, Frank and James, and Azro P. George, all of Hancock, were brought over the mountain by Deputy Sheriff Darling and arraigned before Justice J. E. Stapleton of Middlebury on Thursday of last week, charged with engaging in a riot.

It appeared that one Winfield Scott was occupying, with his housekeeper and hired man, a farm and dwelling in Hancock, formerly occupied by George and wife, and which had passed into the possession of Scott in September last by deed from George and wife, conditioned for their support; also, that there was a counter condition in the deed to the effect that George should pay over to Scott, as further consideration for the support, his pension as fast as he should receive it, in default of which George was to forfeit his right in the premises. Some time last month George and wife became dissatisfied and left the place, taking up their abode with Lewis, a neighbor. When the March instalment of his pension came, George refused to pay it over to Scott, and it seems that the latter then claimed a forfeiture and remained in possession; but on Saturday, the 13th inst., while Scott was at Hancock village, the Lewises, George and wife and one Fay Childs appeared at the house, and turned out the housekeeper and hired man, who were just leaving the house when Scott, accompanied by W. J. Elliot of Hancock, drove up. Scott attempted to enter the house, but was confronted by the elder Lewis, who, as Scott claims, drew a jack-knife, and forcibly obstructed his passage. A fracas ensued between Scott, on the one side, and the Lewises and George, on the other, in which, after the elder Lewis and George had been knocked down, Scott was found at the bottom, with three of his opponents upon him. At this point Mr. Elliot interfered and stopped the fray; and he, Scott, the housekeeper and hired man went away, leaving the other party in possession. No defense was put in except that the younger of the Lewis boys claimed he was not there. The respondents were required to give $200 bail each for their appearance at the county court, which was promptly furnished. A. P. Tupper and W. H. Bliss, Esq., for the State; C. M. Wilds, Esq., for the respondents.

THE MIDDLEBURY Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. entertainment Friday evening was largely attended. The exercises were opened by song and prayer. Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Pitts and Miss Cady sang a trio, "Reapers," and Prof. Eaton in a short address gave a history of the forming of the association here, and announced a business meeting to be held Monday evening.

The following resolution was adopted: WHEREAS, the young men of Middlebury and those interested in them have organized a Young Men's Christian association, and the Honorable W. P. Nash, recognizing the desirability of adding the young men in their earnest efforts for themselves, has kindly purchased this building so admirably adapted to the purposes of the association, and thus enabled it at once to secure a home for itself.

Resolved, that we, members and friends of the Young Men's Christian association assembled for the formal opening of these rooms, acknowledge our gratitude to Hon. W. P. Nash for his disinterested generosity and active interest in this important work and hereby tender to him our thanks.

Mrs. Pitts then sang the solo, "When the heart is young." Mr. Parsons made a few remarks and told what things were yet needed by the association. "Radiance," a piano duett, was played by Mrs. Eaton and Miss Chapman. Mr. Parsons announced the meetings Sunday afternoon and Monday and Wednesday evenings. The meeting was closed by singing the doxology.

Refreshments were served, consisting of coffee, cake, sandwiches, etc., after which all departed, well pleased with the evening.

Monday evening the business meeting of the association was held. The admission fee was changed from $2 to $1. The committee on by-laws read their report, which was accepted and adopted. Between 25 and 30 new members joined the association.

How often we hear middle-aged people say regarding that reliable old cough remedy N. H. Downes' Expectorant: "Why, my mother gave it to me when I was a child, and I use it in my family; it always cures." It is always guaranteed to cure or money refunded.

Every mother should have America's Oil Liniment always in the house in case of accident from burns, scalds or bruises.
